A List of Our Fine Budded Roses

For the Season 1929-30

This folder is supplementary to our 32-page booklet "Roses of Monterey,"—that descriptive guide to rose-growing that, we think, is treasured by thousands of our Rose Friends! Should you have mislaid your copy another will be sent you on request.

This offering lists briefly all Roses described at length in "Roses of Monterey" and in addition describes fully some 62 Roses here offered by us for the first time. In this connection we ask that you bear in mind that the New Roses we offer are the result of long and careful preliminary trial in our Rose Test Garden, with its more than 350 varieties, where a Rose is given only average treatment, with no petting or nursing or artificial shelter. This offering includes:

101 sorts of Bush Roses	11 sorts of Baby Polyantha Roses
47 sorts of Climbing Roses	14 of the "Good Old" Roses

39 sorts of Standard (Tree) Roses

—our selection, based on a lifetime's rose experience, from more than 2000 different varieties! Therefore we confidently present it as one of the most complete and valuable lists ever published for the amateur rose grower.

Again, we avoid the temptation to exploit our Roses by gaudy colored illustrations, so often misleading and the cause of blasted hopes! Better to plant a Cecil and be thrilled by its golden beauty in your garden than to be thrilled by an artist's conception of a Talisman and find bitter disappointment when it blooms!

More and more each year we recognize the importance of the correct budding of Roses. The best understock for a Rose is not always the one on which it can be most quickly and economically budded. Our offerings include eight different kinds of understocks. This point of the best understock for each Rose is just one of many in the creation of a rose bush. Our policy at all times is to furnish THE BEST, for we hold that, with Roses, it ALWAYS pays to plant only the BEST.

There is as much difference in the quality of rose bushes sold as in the quality of livestock. We do not sell "cheap" stock.

A WORD OF CAUTION. Each season we are quickly sold out of some varieties, and it is already evident, as this is written, that this year will be no exception. Hence, we urge that you order as much as possible in advance. Payment of one-half will hold any order for later shipment at any date desired.

Unless otherwise stated, all Roses offered are extra strong, fully matured, correctly budded, dormant, 2 or 3-year old plants, grown in the open field under ideal conditions, that will bloom bountifully the first season. At prices quoted on 6 or more Roses to any address in the United States. As one of our large Rose bushes, packed for shipment as carefully as we pack it, weighs about 2 pounds, this prepayment of charges is an important consideration. On orders for less than six Roses, add to your remittance, if outside Pacific Coast States, 10 cents for each bush. To Pacific Coast States we prepay charges on any quantity.

WE WILL PREPAY ALL SHIPPING CHARGES

Mr. Lester's personal attention is given to all orders; also to requests for special rose information, rose garden planning, and the selection of varieties for special purposes.

Believing firmly that every Rose-lover should know his Roses by name, and realizing how short-lived the ordinary rose-label is, every Rose sold from this catalogue is sent you labelled with a high-grade permanent label, marked with its name in permanent ink, that will withstand water, weather and age, attached by rustless wire, slip-knotted to expand with growth of stem. We also sell these high-quality labels and other garden markers, for your garden requirements, —(see our booklet "Roses of Monterey.")

The Monterey Municipal Rose Garden

adjoining California's First State Capitol,—historic Colton Hall,—has been this year one of the show places of northern California. Thousands of visitors have enjoyed its continuous display of rose blooms, arranged in masses of colors. The Garden contains over 1200 bush, climbing, shrub and tree Roses, including many "parent" and species Roses, new and unnamed Roses, and rare, old Roses, all plainly marked and arranged in systematic order. All of these were supplied and planted by us.

The Old Roses

So much do we think of the Good Old Roses, growing more popular each year in spite of their antiquity, that we list them here by themselves. Many of these are no longer in commerce but, recognizing their merits as well as their rich associations, we grow more of them each year. We love and respect them.

*AUSTRIAN COPPER (1596) The color-parent of our modern flame-toned roses. Blooms in spring with intense copper-red flowers. Vigorous and hardy; fine foliage. $1.25

CASTILIAN (See Rosa Damascena, below).

*CHROMATELLA CN (1843) ("Cloth of Gold") "The Sherman Rose" famous in love and history! Cream flowers with yellow center, large, full and globular. Vigorous climber with clean, attractive foliage. Fragrant. Very scarce. Young plants. $1.00

WILLIAM ALLEN RICHARDSON CN (1878) Free, continuously-blooming climber; buff-orange double flowers.	$1.00

Standard or Tree Roses

Nothing that we sold last season gave more enthusiastic satisfaction to our friends than our Standard Roses. Suitably placed, they are the ideal rose form; their dome-like heads of bloom grow in beauty from year to year. They grow to perfection in costal climate and inland for some distance and should be planted more extensively than they are.

But, oh! what a difference there is in Standard Roses! Some are spindly, twisted, thin stems, with unevenly developed heads, that dwindle away in a few years. The secret of growing these aristocrats of Rose Culture is in planting nothing but the very best,—thick straight stems with two or three buds forming a well-balanced, well-branched symmetrical head, and,—what is very important,—each variety budded on to the stock best suited to that variety.

In high quality and in variety assortment, we confidently present our offering of high-grade Standard Roses below as without an equal to any other in the west, if not in the country. It is very important that Standard Roses be ordered early; the demand is much greater than the supply; and they cannot be shipped in the late spring except in containers, by express collect. For description of varieties not itemized below see our lists of Bush Roses in "Roses of Monterey" or on the preceding pages of this offering. And please remember WE PREPAY CHARGES on orders for 6 Roses or more.
